Washing Machine Motors and Electric Flat-Irons

Garland, — — — — — Utah

E V Schneider has successfully manufactured a contrivance to fit a hand pump that runs by an 8th horse power motor and is having fine success in pumping the water out of the basement of the Boothe Mer. and Produce Co. this week.

Next Monday, Sept. 10th, a meeting of the Press Representatives of all the Utah papers will be held at the parlors of the Wilson Hotel at Salt Lake City, to effect a new organization. It is quite an important meeting and a full representation is desired.

Bp. W. L. Grover and wife, Leslie Grover, Miss Alice Grover and two of the smaller children, who have been on a pleasant 5-weeks' outing in Idaho and Yellowstone Park, returned Monday evening. They report a very pleasant trip. They visited the following places in the journey: Garden Creek, Rigby, Lyman, Sugar City, Parker, Ida., and the Yellowstone Park. At Parker, Ida., quite a number of their relatives reside and a big family gathering was held during their stay in that place. We welcome them home again.

The Garland Military Band gave Mr. and Mrs. Mosiah D. Evans, who were recently married, a royal send-off Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. Evans' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mosiah Evans. After discoursing some melodious open air selections they were invited in and given a genuine treat. Refreshments were served after which some choice selections were rendered in the parlor. As soon as the first notes were sounded by the band, Mosey picked up his cornet and joined in the serenade. Whenever the Military Band goes out, you always see Mosey among the boys and even on this occasion he could not resist the temptation.

Zion: Her Gates and Temple, a new book with colored plates and descriptive verse for each picture by Utah and Colorado poets. The illustrations are from original photographs by Mr. Charles R. Savage of Salt Lake City, and the color reproductions are in soft tints, having a water-color effect. Prominent among the contributors are: Josephine Spencer of the Deseret News, Mrs. Hattie C. Jensen of Salt Lake City, Ruth May Fox of Salt Lake City and Walter Juan Davis of the Denver Post. The publisher believes that the Mormon people will give their kindly support to this work, as it is sure to appeal to friends in the east or abroad that are interested in Utah's scenic attractions. A hitherto unpublished portrait of Brigham Young in sepia tint is one of several full page illustrations. Price 75 Cents.

Editor Garland Globe:

Last Sunday evening at the Elwood Hall a conjoint session of the M. I. A. was held, Stake Aids James Jensen and Wilford Christensen being in attendance. A very interesting program was carried out. At this meeting a reorganization of the Y M M I A was effected. The former president, Eli Anderson, and the 2nd counsellor, K H Fridal were honorably released owing to their going on missions soon. The following are the new officers selected for the organization:

President, J W Francom; 1st counsellor, Parley Christensen; 2nd counsellor, Chas. Peterson; Secretary, H L Wilcox, Treasurer, Jacob Jensen, Librarian, Samuel Mortensen; Chorister, Walter Fridal; Class leaders, Henry Seeger, James O Anderson, H C K Hansen and Nels Nelson.

A merry-go-round comes to town next week. See ad on page 8.

Don't forget the M. I. A. Convention at Brigham Sept. 16.

Messrs. George Clark, Will Lewis and John Olson took advantage of Labor Day and went "chicken-shootin'". They were gone all day but as the shooting was left to Will, they returned home with only one small biddy.
